ABOUT

Unlike Kelpies, Pucas come in various animal forms such as horses, dogs, cats, goats, and hares. They can serve good or bad purposes when it comes to humans.

CONTACT

Of primary interest to Pucas is trickery and fun. Where a Kelpie will drown its rider, a Horse Puca will give a wild ride before dumping the rider. A Black Dog will warn with a Doom, whereas as a Dog Puca might want only a romp.

Some Pucas can be Genius loci creatures, attached to one place such as a woodland walk or a lonely crossroads.
